

ELLEN KANNER, Great Neck, NY

"I am a fluid acrylic artist who creates specialized organic paint pours. My paintings can be seen in galleries in NYC and Long Island, as well as numerous juried art shows, including the Art Guild of Port Washington, Clovis Vineyard, Better Man Distilling Company and Amulet Arts, to name a few. I also teach workshops for young teens through adults. Prior to creating paint pours, I worked with clay and alabaster stone. All of my paint pours are original and unique, as they are inspired by the organic world of emotions and nature."
