

GEM13, New Jersey

GEM13nyc is a self-taught female graffiti writer/artist originally from New York. She began writing and sketching graffiti in 1988 at the age of 13. For the last 17 years, she has been raising her family in an idyllic suburb of NJ, while holding strong to her street cred and passion for graffiti. Once she crosses into NY to paint a wall or attend a graffiti event, she leaves her identity as Nicole Marie behind and becomes GEM13 again. She enjoys painting outdoor walls in the 5 boroughs of NYC, as well as different venues throughout NJ. She has painted in Baltimore, MD, Miami FL, and Phoenix, AZ, as well as in Europe in Barcelona, Madrid, Perpignan, and her favorite city of all, Paris, totaling 38 visits in the last 15 years.
