

SHULIE COOPER, Brooklyn, NY

Ms. Cooper's paintings reflect the importance of exploring one's inner self. "A lot of my work features spiral lines and organic shapes, for I believe that in life, everything comes full circle."

She earned a BFA and an AA in Judaic Studies with honors from Stern College for Women in NYC. She holds an MA in Computer Graphics and Communication Arts from NY Institute of Technology and an MA in Creative Arts Therapy from Hofstra University. She is a Registered Art Therapist (ATR). Shulie Cooper has been a NYS licensed art teacher for 16 years, currently teaching in Queens, NY. She paints on large canvases, experimenting with materials such as leather, acrylic paint, spray paint, found objects from nature, glass, glue, and crystals and believes that in Art, "a mistake is just a happy accident," a quote from her favorite artist, Bob Ross.
