

TIFFANY ZHU, New York City

Tiffany Zhu was born in Nanjing, Jiangsu Province, CHINA. She currently resides in NYC where she holds the following professional memberships: Council of Chinese Overseas Artists; American Association of Asian Artists; NY Contemporary Art Center; Chinese Overseas Women's Artists Association; International Calligraphy & Painting Artists Association.

She studied oil painting at the Arts Students League in NYC and the National Academy Museum & School. She studied with the abstract master painter, Alan Van Every. Her career in oil painting includes more than 200 oil paintings. She has participated in numerous international exhibitions and her work has been showcased in many art institutions, corporate and private collections. The renowned Chinese art curator, Lang Fengjun names her as the "new contemporary talented female artist." Tiffany Zhu was selected to be in the top 100 Chinese Women Artists on the 70th anniversary of the founding of the People's Republic of China from 1949-2019.

Home in Paradise

2006

Oil on Canvas

24 x 36

$2800

LOCATION:

Gold Coast Arts Gallery