

ZIMAD, New York City

Luis Zimad Lamboy was born in the South Bronx in 1965. In the late 1970s he began his career as a graffiti artist, which has heavily influenced his style and global brand. After earning a scholarship, he attended the Fashion Institute of Technology in NYC where he studied textile surface designing. As a self-taught artist, he began to combine his skills with formal training in design to develop the unique and edgy style he is best known for.

His first show was in 1984 at Fashion Moda, a gallery best known for first showcasing graffiti art in NYC. Since then, he has shown and sold globally, including exhibitions in the US, Russia, France, London, UK, Switzerland, Amsterdam, the Netherlands, Philippines, Vietnam, Ecuador, and Panama.

His clients include many major brands such as: Nike, MTV, Modello, Corona, RedBull, LionsGate Films, Jacob & Co., State Farm Insurance, as well as private clients and celebrities. He has appeared in dozens of documentaries and has been interviewed and invited to participate in shows and projects around the world. He is a longtime friend of the Gold Coast Arts Center and has painted his unique work on the walls there many times.

His influences come from Jean Michele Basquiat, Keith Haring, and Jeff Koons. Luis Lamboy sees art as a living, timeless force. His works incorporate his experiences and history's often forgotten lessons, which he hopes will educate and inspire people all over the world for generations to come.
